ORAL ORDER

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned representing the State.

Petitioners are apprehending their arrest in connection with Neemchak Bathani P.S. Case No. 85 of 2014 dated 10.08.2014 registered for the offences under Sections 341, 323, 384, 379/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegedly, the petitioners entered into the Aanganwari Centre and demanded Rs. 10,000/- from the informant and Petitioner No.1 assaulted on her wrist of left hand by means of pistol resulting entire bangles being broken and Petitioner No. 5 snatched golden earring causing threat that if without payment the centre will be opened then she will be killed.

Submission is that as a matter of fact, the Aanganwari Centre is not opened and as such the villagers including the petitioners have filed complaint before Block Development Officer, Neemchak Bathani vide Annexure-2 and after getting knowledge the informant lodged this case with false allegation, news items were published in Prabhat Khabar in this regard vide Annexure-3 but due to intervention of well wishers, now, the matter has been compromised and joint compromise application has been filed in the Court below and as such deserves sympathetic consideration to which the learned A.P.P. opposes.

In the facts and circumstances have stated above as the parties have compromised the case amicably and as such the above-named, petitioners in case of their surrender or arrest within two months from the date of receipt of the copy of the order or production of the same shall be released on bail on execution of bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Kumari Vijaya, the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Gaya in connection with Neemchak Bathani P.S. Case No. 85 of 2014, subject to the conditions as laid down under Sections 438 (2) of the Cr. P.C.
