2 10-09-2015 Heard learned senior counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

This application for grant of anticipatory bail arises out of Bangaon P.S. Case No. 28 of 2015, disclosing offences under Sections 147, 148,323,324,341, 307 and 384 of the Indian Penal Code.

Having considered the submission made on behalf of the learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner with reference to the nature of allegation and admitted dispute of civil nature between the parties, since long, I am inclined to grant the petitioner, privilege of anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the informant has, however, opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail and has submitted that in another bail application preferred by other co-accused persons, case diary has been called for, without giving them any interim relief.

However in the facts and circumstances of the case, this application is allowed. Let petitioners above named in the event of his arrest or surrender within six weeks from today in the Court below, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Saharsa in Bangaon P.S. Case No. 28 of 2015, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioner shall present himself before the police/Court, as the case may be, and when required and in the event of failure on his part to appear before the Court on two consecutive occasions, his bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
