ORAL ORDER

5 21-12-2015 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case under Sections 448 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner is alleged to have debited Rs. 2,68,361/- from the nominal account and remitted the same to the account of his children and other relatives during the span of three years and when this fraud was detected, the Bank recovered the entire amount. Mr. Suresh Prasad Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that the petitioner did not commit any fraud intentionally. The petitioner has already been dismissed from service after departmental proceeding. He has sufficiently been punished but from perusal of the records, it appears that it was the petitioner who withdrew huge amount of Rs. 2,68,361/- from one nominal account and credited the same to the accounts of his children.

Considering the fact that recovery of amount may not be a mitigating circumstance for grant of anticipatory bail, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail in Desari (Chandpura) P.S. Case No. 157/2014. The same is accordingly rejected.
