CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 01-12-2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Though it is agreed at the bar that all admitted dues of the petitioner have been paid, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that full and final payments have been made to the petitioner after a delay of about over a year. He thus prays for interest.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and submissions of learned counsel for the parties, without going into the merits of the case, the writ petition stands disposed off with liberty to the petitioner to file a representation before the authority to satisfy them that he is entitled to interest as per the decision of the State Government itself. If such representation is filed within four weeks from today along with a copy of this order, the concerned respondent shall look into the matter and pass appropriate order within three weeks from the filing of such representation.

However, it is made clear that any order passed by the authority on the representation of the petitioner shall not give him cause of action to move the High Court.
