CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 30-09-2015 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Having regard to the nature of allegation against the petitioners for the offences punishable under Sections- 341, 323, 324, 307, 504, 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code and that the allegation of specific assault by petitioner no. 1 with Farsa and petitioner no. 2 by iron rod, has been found to be fully substantiated in the injury report, this Court is not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to either of the petitioner.

That being so, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is hereby rejected.

Nonetheless, the petitioner will definitely have a right to seek regular bail. Therefore, if the petitioners would surrender before the Court below and make a prayer for regular bail, their cases would be decided on its own merits without being prejudiced by anything said in this order.
