ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH)

Date: 15-05-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and respondents and with their consent, this writ petition is being disposed of at this stage itself.

The petitioner is aggrieved by the order of the Tribunal by which the Tribunal has not acceded to his request for grant of 100% overtime. We have gone through the order of the Tribunal in detail and we find that the Tribunal has considered the matter in the correct perspective. Petitioner, being Master Craftsman, claimed 100 % overtime. The Tribunal agreed with the authority that this was wrong and misleading charge.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that claim towards overtime did not amount to 100%. Some other amounts also should have been granted.

These are pure questions of disputed facts, which this Court in writ jurisdiction is inapt to decide under Article 226, 227 of the Constitution.

The writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed.
