ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 24-09-2015

The petitioner without disclosing his ownership or right with respect to the land and/or the temple standing thereon has filed the present writ petition for protecting the said temple from being dismantled by the private respondent.

In my view, considering the pleadings and the prayer, no relief can be granted to the petitioner by invoking the discretionary writ jurisdiction. Petitioner may seek remedy according to law before the appropriate forum.

The application is dismissed.
