CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE V.N. SINHA

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 20-03-2015

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that during the pendency of this application petitioner left for his heavenly abode. Counsel for the Bank, however, states that during the pendency of this writ petition assailing his suspension petitioner filed another writ petition asking the Bank not to further conduct the departmental proceeding as he was hospitalized but the said petition has been dismissed.

Petitioner having left for his heavenly abode, the present Writ Petition has become infructuous, is accordingly, disposed of, as now his heirs are required to move the Bank for payment of the terminal dues of the petitioner for which liberty is granted to the heirs of the petitioner.
