CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SAMARENDRA
PRATAP SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 14-10-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Bakhari

P.S. Case No. 130 of 2015 registered under section 302/34 of the Indian penal Code.

According to the prosecution case, the informant saw the son-in-law of his elder brother on 25.03.2015 at 1.30 P.M.

in the night coming out from the house where the daughter of the informant was sleeping. He went in the house and found his daughter dead lying on the cot.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had no any weapon in his hand. Further more he has nothing to do with the murder of the girl. The informant has also not stated the means of identification of the petitioner.

Considering the allegation made against the petitioner, in my view, this is not a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail. Accordingly the same is rejected. However, the petitioner, if so advised, may surrender and seek regular bail. He may raise all the points before the court below which has been taken here. In case the petitioner files bail application the same should be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order, preferably on the same day.
