Informant/injured while was going towards his house over a motorcycle along with his wife was intercepted by the criminals who had hidden their faces. During course thereof, he was assaulted after tying his hands and legs as well as putting cloth inside his mouth. His wife was taken away by the miscreants. Later on, after fleeing of miscreants, he traced dead body of his wife as well as having cash, mobile set and other items removed by the miscreants.

It has also been disclosed that on that very moment, his wife had identified one of the miscreants as Bajrangi while the informant had identified one, Kariman by his voice. Others have also been named in the background of animosity prevailing since

From the Fard-e-beyan as well as after going through the case diary, it is evident that neither the informant nor any witness had claimed identification of the petitioner during course of occurrence rather his name appeared only on account of animosity prevailing since before, on mere suspicion.
