CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR
TRIPATHI
ORAL ORDER

2      28-07-2015      The malafide of the claim of the petitioner appears from her own conduct. She filed the writ application, seeking a direction for declaration of her result of D.P. Ed. Examination, held in the year 1995-1996.

There is nothing to indicate that after conduct of examination, petitioner was ever interested in declaration of the result till filing of the writ application after more than a decade and half.

The stand of the petitioner's counsel that she has been filing representations is of no avail since it is a feeble effort to justify the extraordinary delay.

In addition to that, the respondents have filed their counter affidavit indicating that she had not appeared in one of the papers in question, which was the reason for non-declaration of her result. The petitioner knew this position very well and that is why she sat over the matter and her right for more than a decade and half and then decided to take a chance thereafter.

Writ application has no merit, and it is accordingly dismissed.
