CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE GOPAL PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

2 20-04-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

This is a petition for grant of anticipatory bail in a case under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

There is allegation of demand of dowry and on non-fulfilment of the same, subjecting to cruelty and ousted from the matrimonial home after snatching her money, jewelleries and clothes. The petitioner is the husband of the complainant.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner and complainant have compromised the case and the complainant is residing with the petitioner.

Hence, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner, above named, is directed to be released on provisional bail for three months in the event of his arrest or surrender within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Sitamarhi in connection with Case No. C-1/372/2013, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr. P. C. and after his surrender the trial court shall call for the complainant and if the trial court is satisfied that she is residing with the petitioner with due dignity and honour then the trial court shall confirm the bail bond of the petitioner having been satisfied that the petitioner during the period of three months is residing with the complainant-wife with due dignity and honour. However, if the trial court is satisfied that the complainant is not residing with the petitioner with due dignity and honour then the interim bail granted by this Court shall stand cancelled.
