ORAL ORDER

2 15-10-2015

Heard Sri Sarvadeo Singh, learned counsel, who was assisted by Sri Sanjay Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, learned A.P.P. and Sri Manoranjan Kumar, learned counsel, who submits that only today he has filed “Vakalatnama” on behalf of the informant in the Registry.

The petitioner, apprehending his arrest in connection with Maner P.S. Case No. 399 of 2014 registered for the offence punishable under Section 307 and other allied Sections of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act, has prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in the present case there was case and counter case in between the parties and from the petitioner’s side also number of persons have sustained injuries, and as such, he makes a prayer for extending the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the informant submits that in the F.I.R. there is specific accusation against the petitioner that he fired, which hit the chest of the informant.

On perusal of the F.I.R. it is evident that there is specific accusation against the petitioner that he fired, which hit the informant. In view of specific accusation, I do not find it a fit case for extending the privilege of anticipatory bail.

The petition stands dismissed.
