CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

2 23-04-2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Having regard to the nature of allegation against the petitioners for offence under sections 147, 148, 149, 447, 498A, 341, 323, 324, 337, 307, 379, 504 and 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code as also sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act this Court on perusal of the injuries as alleged in the F.I.R. to have been substantiated by the doctor on the person of three persons, namely, Md. Iliyas, Md. Mokim and Md. Irshad, is not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners even if there was a case filed by the petitioners for the same offence. Learned counsel for the petitioners in fact has failed to produce even a single injury report on the side of the petitioners which could have given at least some credence in the allegation made in the counter blast version of the petitioners.

Be that as it may, this Court is not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners in such an offence where three persons have received injuries on their person in the hands of the petitioners. thus the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioners is, hereby, rejected.

The petitioners may surrender and make prayer for regular bail which shall be considered on its own merits without being prejudiced by anything said in the present order.
