CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ADITYA KUMAR TRIVEDI
ORAL ORDER

04 07-05-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned

Additional Public Prosecutor.

Petitioner is the husband of Kiran Kumari, with whom his marriage was solemnized about three years ago. All of a sudden, petitioner had informed his father in-law regarding disappearance of Kiran Kumari about four days ago and for that, no sincere effort is found at the end of the petitioner. Furthermore, it has been disclosed that during intervening period, deceased was subjected to torture.

Even during course of argument, no cogent explanation has been offered on behalf of petitioner, save and except referring Annexure-2, a petition filed by the parents of Kiran Kumari incorporating the fact that Kiran Kumari left the place on account of insanity, which has got no force in the eye of law.

That being so, prayer of petitioner for anticipatory bail is rejected.
