ORAL ORDER

2 05-10-2015

Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under sections 399, 402 of the Indian Penal Code and sections 25(1-b)a, 26 and 35 of the Arms Act.

The informant and other police officials on information raided the place of information that some criminals had assembled there. Police arrested three persons, namely, Md. Islam, Suraj Sah and Suman Gupta but the petitioner and other accused persons managed to flee away from the place of occurrence. From the apprehended accused arms and ammunicions and looted money were recovered. The informant identified the petitioner Md. Badal @ Badruddin who managed to flee away from the place of occurrence.

It is submitted that petitioner had gone to market.
Petitioner has got no criminal antecedent.

Having Considered the fact that the informant has categorically stated that he identified the petitioner while fleeing away from the place of occurrence and the companion of the petitioner were arrested from whose possessions arms and ammunities were recovered, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner in connection with Mansahi P.S. case No. 54 of 2015 pending in the court of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Katihar. This application for grant of anticipatory bail is, accordingly, rejected.
