CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

4 02-03-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned AC to AAG No. 10.

The petitioner, who claims to continued as Daily Wager from 7.3.1989 and till 18.10.1989 and thereafter, again engaged on 4.4.1990 and continued as Daily Wager up to 1993, has primarily made a prayer for regularization of his service on the post of Assistant in the office of Executive Engineer, National Rural Employment Programme, Bhojpur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner accepts that for the same relief the petitioner had approached this court by way of filing a writ petition vide CWJC No.7380 of 1995, which was disposed of on 28.11.1996.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that of-course in the said writ petition no specific relief was granted, however, the court had observed that if vacancy is advertised for appointment, the petitioner shall be at liberty to file application for appointment.

I have perused the order i.e. Annexure - 5 to the writ petition passed by a bench of this court. On examining the order of the writ court, the court is satisfied that earlier for the same relief no positive order was passed in favour of the petitioner.

Keeping in view the earlier order as well as the relief sought for in the writ petition for regularization, the court is of the opinion that no relief can be granted to the petitioner.

The writ petition stands dismissed.
