ORAL ORDER

2 09-11-2015

Heard both sides.

Petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Barhara (Raghuwansh Nagar O.P.) no. 87 of 2015, registered under Sections 302/34 of the IPC.

The three petitioners herein are the mother and two sons who are accused of causing death of Sarswati Devi who is none else than the own mother- in- law of the petitioner no.1.

Allegation in nut shell is that she was pushed inside the room which was set at ablaze. The injured sustained severe burn injury and later died in hospital.

It is submitted that they have falsely been implicated in this case. In fact, while cooking she caught fire and got burnt which subsequently proved fatal. It is further submitted that one of the sons of the deceased is already in jail custody.

Learned APP on behalf of the State opposed the prayer and submitted with reference to the impugned order that during the investigation witnesses have supported the prosecution case.

Be that as it may, considering the seriousness of the case and the allegation attributed to the petitioners in the First Information Report, I am not inclined to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Petitioners may surrender and seek regular bail before the Court below. In case the same is preferred the Court below shall consider the same on its own merit uninfluenced by the present order.
