CORAM: HONOURABLE SHRI JUSTICE DHARNIDHAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

3 21-05-2015

None appears on calls.

The petition seeks quashing of order dated 02.05.2012, passed by the learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Patna in Complaint Case No. 104 (c) of 2011 by which the petitioners were summoned to stand trial for committing offences under Sections 406, 420, 467 and 468 of the Indian Penal Code as well as Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.

After having perused the impugned order, what appears is that the learned Magistrate had perused the relevant records produced before him along with the statement of the complainant on S.A. and those of the witnesses examined during enquiry and had then proceeded to pass the impugned order pointing out that offences only under Section 420 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act were made out. What this Court finds is that the Magistrate had passed the order only after considering the relevant materials as are required to be considered and there is no need of interference.

The petition lacks merit and the same is dismissed.
