CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DINESH KUMAR SINGH
ORAL ORDER

2 04-12-2015 Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner is apprehending arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302 and 201 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case is that the daughter of the informant (victim) was married with Chandrika Yadav who used to assault her on making accusation of infidelity. The informant received information that the accused persons have killed and kept the dead body in the house and when it started stinking, the dead body was thrown in the adjacent area of the house. On conclusion of investigation the husband of the victim Chandrika Yadav was chargesheeted. The petitioner being maternal uncle of the husband of the victim was not sent up for trial but differing with the final form, cognizance has been taken.

It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has been roped in the present case simply because he happens to be maternal uncle of the husband of the victim and during investigation, except suspicion nothing transpired. It is further submitted that charge sheet and the impugned order do not suggest any material collected during investigation against the petitioner. Statement has been made in paragraph 3 of the petition that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

Considering the aforesaid facts, let the above named petitioner be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of twelve weeks from today on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned JM Ist Class, Araria, in connection with Bounsi P.S. Case No.21 of 2015 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
