CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 23-09-2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioner has moved the Court for payment of death-cum-retiral benefits of her husband who died in harness on 09.10.2008.

Learned counsel for the respondents no. 2 to 5,
who are required to make the payment, does not deny the liability.
It is submitted that whatever is due to her shall be calculated and paid.

This Court is unable to appreciate the fact that no payment has been made to the petitioner after the death of her husband in the year 2008 in harness when the family was left in the lurch due to the sudden departure of the bread earner.

Accordingly, the writ application stands disposed off with a direction to the respondent no. 5 to ensure that all admitted dues of the petitioner relating to leave encashment, gratuity, unpaid salary, insurance, etc., as may be admissible in accordance with law along with the statutory interest, if any, is paid to her within a period of six weeks from the date of production of a copy of this order before him, failing which the amount shall carry simple interest at the rate of 9% per annum which shall be recovered from the personal pocket of the officer(s) who may be responsible for the delay.
