CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2. 05-11-2015 At the very outset, Sri Rajendra Prasad, learned counsel for the respondent/Mines & Geology Department, in presence of learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.C. to Addl. Advocate General – 2, has raised preliminary objection on the point of maintainability of the writ petition. He submits that against the order passed by the Collector, the petitioner can approach the Mines Commissioner.

After objection being raised, learned counsel for the petitioner makes a prayer for disposal of the writ petition so that the petitioner may approach the Mines Commissioner and raise his grievance, which has been raised in the present writ petition.

The prayer is allowed.

The writ petition stands disposed of with liberty, as indicated above.

It goes without saying that if within a period of eight weeks from today, the petitioner approaches the Mines Commissioner and files a petition, the learned Commissioner may examine the same on its merit and decide it in accordance with law without unnecessary delay.
