CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2. 10-04-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.C. to Addl. Advocate General – 9.

Though, the writ petition was filed in the year 2008, till date no counter affidavit has been filed. Accordingly, instead of asking the State to file counter affidavit, the Court proposes to dispose of the present writ petition, in view of nature of relief sought for in the petition.

The petitioner, invoking writ jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, has prayed for directing the respondents to appoint her as Anganbari Sevika in respect of Daharpur Gram Panchayat, Gauradih Block in the district of Bhagalpur.

It has been claimed that respondent no. 9 has been appointed, who was not resident of the area, in respect of Anganbari centre, where appointment has been made.

It has further been claimed that the petitioner has also filed representation before the District Magistrate, however; no decision has been taken till date.

In view of nature of relief sought for in the petition as well as facts and circumstances, the present writ petition stands disposed of granting liberty to the petitioner to file a proper complaint in view of clause 8 of the guidelines of the appointment of Anganbari Sevika/Sahaika supported with an affidavit in respect of claim of the present writ petition before the District Magistrate/competent authority. If such complaint is filed within a period of eight weeks from today, the Court expects that the District Magistrate/competent authority may get the matter enquired and pass appropriate order, preferably; within a period of three months from the date of filing of such complaint.

The writ petition stands disposed.
