ORAL JUDGMENT

2 08-05-2015 Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that now this application has become infructuous because the opposite parties have passed a final order in departmental proceeding and against such order, the petitioner has filed a fresh writ application bearing C.W.J.C. No. 13552 of 2014.

2. Learned counsel for the opposite parties also has taken a stand that the direction given by this Court in the connected writ application has been complied with.

3. That being so, this application has become infructuous and is, accordingly, disposed of.
