CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 07-08-2015 Heard Sri Satyavrat Verma, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Anshuman Singh, learned GP No. 24.

The petitioner, invoking writ jurisdiction of this court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, has prayed for quashing of an order which was passed on 27.1.2011 (Annexure-14 to the writ petition) by the licensing authority i.e. respondent no. 7.

At the very outset, a preliminary objection was raised by learned counsel for the State that against the order impugned there was statutory provision of appeal and the petitioner by surpassing the statutory remedy has approached this court.

On objection being raised, Sri Satyavrat Verma, learned counsel for the petitioner, makes a prayer for disposal of the present writ petition, so that, petitioner may avail statutory remedy.

The prayer is allowed.

The writ petition stands disposed of with liberty as indicated above.

It goes without saying that period consumed in pursuing the present writ petition i.e. from 5.12.2013 till date shall be excluded while considering the limitation matter.
