CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 01-12-2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

As per stand of the respondents, all admitted dues of the petitioner have been paid.

On 01.10.2015 on the prayer made by the learned counsel for the petitioner the matter was adjourned for four weeks to enable him to file substitution petition as the Court was informed that the sole petitioner had died. Today, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he has not received any instruction from the heirs of the petitioner.

In view of the aforesaid, the Court can only presume that either the grievance of the petitioner has been redressed or the heirs of the petitioner do not want to contest the matter. Either way, there is no justification to keep the matter pending.

Accordingly, the writ petition stands disposed off.

However, the heirs of the writ petitioner shall be at liberty to file a representation before the authority concerned, if they are convinced that some other dues remain unpaid.
