CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL ORDER

2 27-02-2015 Merely because service appeal of the petitioner has been filed belatedly, it does not mean that the same could not to be registered or an order be not passed by the appellate authority namely, Office of the Divisional Commissioner, Saharsa.

It is the stand of the counsel for the petitioner that the appeal is not being accepted or registered. If it is so it is not an acceptable position.

Writ application is disposed of with a direction that the service appeal of the petitioner will be registered and appropriate order thereon will be passed on the merit of the matter including the limitation, if any.

(Ajay Kumar Tripathi, J)
