ORAL ORDER

03/ 06-02-2015

Heard learned counsels for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner is languishing in custody since 04.03.2014 in a case registered for the offences punishable under Section 394 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is of robbing Rs.250/- of the informant after causing firearm injury on the leg. The name of the petitioner sprang up in confession of co-accused Suraj Yadav.

Statement has been made in para 9 and 10 of the petition that neither recovery has been made from the petitioner nor the petitioner has been put on TIP in spite of the fact that he is in jail. Moreover, the petitioner has been made accused in 11 cases but he has not been named in any of the cases and the police mechanically remanded the petitioner in those cases.

Considering the fact that neither the petitioner has not been put on TIP nor recovery has been made, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Araria in connection with Narpatganj P.S. Case No. 203 of 2011.

Considering the serious criminal antecedent of the petitioner, the learned court below will cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner, if he substantially gets involved in some serious nature of the offence or defaults for two consecutive occasions.
