ORAL ORDER

3 15-04-2015

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner has renewed his prayer for bail in connection with Sessions Trial No. 428 of 2014/224 of 2014 arising out of Wazirganj P.S. Case No. 519 of 2013 initially registered for the offence punishable under Sections 395 and 397 of the Indian Penal Code but later on, Section 412 of the Indian Penal Code was also added.

The prayer for bail of the petitioner was earlier rejected by this Court on 21st July, 2014.

It has been contended that despite a clear direction

having been given by this Court for expeditious trial till date, no witness has been examined on behalf of the prosecution in the court below.

Be that as it may, regard being had to the serious nature of allegation as discussed in my earlier order dated 21st July, 2014 as contained in Annexure-1 to this application, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner for the present. Accordingly, the prayer for bail is rejected.

The learned Additional Sessions Judge-5th, Gaya, before whom the session trial is pending, is directed to hold the trial of the case on day-to-day basis and conclude the same as early as possible, preferably within one year from today failing which the petitioner would be at liberty to renew his prayer for bail in the court below itself.
