ORAL ORDER

11 12-08-2015 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in Shahpur P.S. Case
No.72/2014 registered for the offence punishable under Sections 395 and 396 of the Indian Penal Code.

It is submitted that the FIR was lodged against unknown.
The name of the petitioner has appeared merely on suspicion. During investigation, some pieces of bloodstained bamboo were recovered from the house of the petitioner. The petitioner is in custody since 19.04.2014, but he has not been put on T.I. Parade. From perusal of the F.S.L. report, it appears from item no.1 that gauze piece cuttings blood could not be detected and could not be determined as human blood.

The learned counsel for the State submits that although the case was lodged against unknown, but the involvement of the petitioner appeared during investigation. Some pieces of bloodstained bamboo were recovered and seized from the house of the petitioner. The F.S.L. report has been called for from which it appears that out of four items, in three items, human blood have been found and there is ample evidence to connect the petitioner with the occurrence. He further submits that the petitioner is facing trial.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in my opinion, the petitioner does not deserve bail at this stage. His prayer for bail is rejected.

Let the trial be expedited.
