CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

3 07-05-2015 Heard both sides.

The petitioner seeks bail in Terhagachh P.S. Case No.
64 of 2014, registered for the offences punishable under Section
304 (B) and other Sections of the Indian Penal Code.

The petitioner is the husband of the deceased. Mother of the deceased alleged that the petitioner and other in-laws of the deceased burnt her to death. She alleged that she came to the house of her daughter. She found her daughter badly burnt and brought her to hospital where her daughter was referred to Katihar Medical College but her daughter died on 2.09.2014.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that almost all the witnesses have stated that the victim herself set ablaze only on account of some family disputes with her husband. The petitioner never demanded any dowry nor tortured his wife. The FIR was lodged after 15 days of the occurrence.

It appears that the mother of the deceased made very specific allegation against the petitioner. The FIR was lodged only on the next day of the death of her daughter. The petitioner is the husband and his wife died with burn injury, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.

The trial court is directed to expedite the trial and conclude the same within nine months from the date of receipt of this order.
