CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

6 27-08-2015 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Having regard to the nature of allegation against the petitioner for the offences punishable under Sections-302/34 of the Indian Penal Code and that the petitioner has chequered criminal record, this Court would not be inclined to direct for his release on bail and therefore, all that can be done is that a direction should be issued to the trial Court.

That being so, the trial Court is directed to ensure that the trial of the petitioner arising out of Barahia P.S. Case No. 133 of 2010 giving rise to Sessions Trial No.

280 of 2014, must be expedited and also concluded within a period of one year from the date of receipt of this order.

This Court would also accordingly direct the Superintendent of Police, Lakhisarai to ensure that the prosecution witnesses must be made to appear in the aforementioned criminal case within a maximum period of six months from the date of receipt of this order, so that the trial Court shall dispose of the trial of the petitioner in the aforementioned time frame of one year.

Let a copy of this order to sent to the trial Court as also to the Superintendent of Police, Lakhisarai for its compliance in the letter and spirit.
