ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE V.N. SINHA)

Date: 15-04-2015

In both these appeals counsel for the appellant is present. None appear for the Indian Oil Corporation Limited though Mr. Mukesh Kumar Modi appeared for the Corporation by filing vakalatnama.

2. These two Letters Patent Appeals are directed against the order dated 10.08.2004 passed by the learned Single Judge in CWJC Nos. 4710 and 15396 of 2001 whereunder selection of the appellant as the Dealer to operate retail outlet at Jalalpur crossing in the district of Gopalganj pursuant to advertisement (Annexure-1) has been set aside directing the respondent Corporation to proceed afresh for allotment of the dealership in question in accordance with the Rules and to consider the case of the appellant, the private respondents and others.

3. Aforesaid order of the learned Single Judge was stayed by the Division Bench under order dated 27.03.2006. Learned counsel for the appellant has no instruction about the developments made after the order under appeal was stayed by the Division Bench. In case after stay of the order by the Division Bench the appellant has been allowed to establish the retail outlet in question then the prayer made in the appeal has become infructuous as none has appeared on behalf of respondent no. 4 Mostmat Indu Sinha writ petitioner to oppose the prayer made in the appeal to set aside order dated 10.08.2004 passed in CWJC Nos. 4710 and 15396 of 2001 and the consequence of the interim stay order. Counsel for the appellant has no instructions and the retail outlet has not been established by the appellant then the Indian Oil Corporation Limited shall proceed in accordance with law and ensure establishment of the retail outlet in question as per the Rules.

4. Both these appeals are disposed off in the aforementioned terms.
