CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

3      24-08-2015      Heard both sides.

The petitioners, Pramod Rishi and Khurchan Rishi seek bail in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Pramod Rishi solemnized love marriage with the deceased five days before the occurrence. The deceased was earlier married to someone else. It is alleged that deceased was poisoned to death by her husband and her in laws.

Sri Bhola Prasad, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is no eye witness of the occurrence. Even the post mortem report shows no sign of external injury but the viscera is kept reserved and the same sent to Forensic Science Laboratory, Bihar, Patna. The dead body was found on the Darbaza of the informant and not in the house of the petitioners but it appears that the informant has made very specific allegation that on account of love affairs the petitioner no. 1 solemnized marriage with the deceased just five days before the occurrence and took the deceased to his house and after poisoning the deceased petitioners threw the dead body on the Darbaza of the informant.

Considering the fact that there is specific allegation against petitioner no. 1, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner no. 1, namely, Pramod Rishi on bail and accordingly, the same is rejected.

So far as the case of petitioner no. 2, namely, Khurchan Rishi is concerned, he is the father in law of the deceased and no specific allegation is made against him, the petitioner no. 2, namely, Khurchan Rishi, is directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Purnea in K. Nagar P.S. Case No. 646 of 2014.
