Sections 498A, 304B and 201 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

The prosecution story, in brief, is that the daughter of the informant, namely, Sushila Devi was married with this petitioner in 2008 and after marriage, the petitioner along with other accused persons used to demand further dowry of Rs.50,000/- and for that she was tortured by them and on 25.02.2014, the informant came to know that Sushila Devi has been taken by the petitioner to Deoduttpur where she was not found. The informant went to Deoduttpur and searched her but her house was found locked and the villagers told that the petitioner after beating Sushila Devi ousted her from the house and she went to the house of one Surendra Yadav who refused to give her shelter due to fear of the petitioner. The informant got suspicion in his mind that her daughter along with her two years female child was done to death and her dead body was thrown somewhere else.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that the petitioner is the husband of the deceased. Though the case was instituted for an offence under Section 304B and other allied sections of the Indian Penal Code but after investigation, the police has submitted final report for an offence under Section 306 of the Indian Penal Code. It has further been submitted that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent and he is in custody since 28.11.2014.

On behalf of the State, it has been submitted that the petitioner is named in the first information report.
