

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Test Suit No.3 of 2003

=====

Rajiv Nandan Prasad, Son of Late Laxminarayan Prasad, resident of Village-Betwan Bazar, Police Station-Kashim Bazar, District-Munger.
.... .. Plaintiff

Versus

Rajesh Kumar @ Rajesh Thakur, Son of Arjun Thakur, resident of Village-Lakhminia, P.S.-Balua, District-Begusarai.
.... .. Defendant

=====

Appearance :
For the Petitioner/s : Mr. L.N. Das, Senior Advocate
Mr. Sushil Kumar Singh, Advocate
For the Defendant : None

=====

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AKHILESH CHANDRA
ORAL ORDER

87 29-01-2015 Heard learned counsel for the plaintiff.

None turned up on behalf of the defendant.

This is an application filed under Sections 273 and 276 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 for probate to the WILL dated 27/03/2000 in the goods of “Late Shavitri Devi (deceased), Wife of Late Rajendra Thakur, Ward Shevika, Military Hospital, Danapur, permanent resident of Village-Ranjulal Tola, P.S.-Mokama,
District-Patna”, who died on 01/05/2000.

After some lengthy arguments, learned counsel for the plaintiff seeks permission to withdraw this application without any liberty to file afresh.

Permission is accorded.

Accordingly, this application stands disposed of.

(Akhilesh Chandra, J)

Praveen-II/-

U
---	--	--	--