CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MIHIR KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

4 21-07-2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties in all these writ applications.

The main grievance of the petitioners is that the order of the learned Single Judge in exactly similar batch of cases dated 12.8.2014 in C.W.J.C.No. 15487/2011 (Kamlesh Dikshit Raj v. the State of Bihar & ors.) and its analogous cases has not been complied as yet though an appeal, L.P.A.No. 16/2015, (The Chairman, Central Selection Board v. Kamlesh Dikshit Raj & ors.) has also been disposed of on 1.7.2015.

This Court in the case of Kamlesh Dikshit Raj (supra) had made the following observations and given consequential directions:

“58. Whether the mistakes were bonafide or otherwise and whether they were committed by any individual or a group of them, are matters not for consideration by this Court, but there can be no escape from the conclusion that the Board has made a complete mess of the entire process of selection. Normally this would have led to quashing/ scraping of the entire process with a direction to the Board to proceed afresh from the stage of publication of result of written examination after re-distribution of vacancies to different categories strictly in terms of Act 3 of 1992. But this can lead to complete chaos and thousand of candidates, for no fault of theirs, would come back on road. This will be inequitable and should be avoided. But wrong caused to the petitioners, and may be many more others, should also be remedied. In circumstances, this Court is of the view that the Board and the Home (Police) Department should be given one more chance to rectify their mistakes and take corrective measures, by taking into service all those candidates, who may have remained left out due to their fault, with special eye on the preferential claims of home guard candidates on the remaining vacancies of their quota. This exercise must be done meticulously at the highest level of the hierarchy to rule out any recurrence of mistakes and injustice.

59. As a result this matter is referred to the present Director General of Police, Govt. of Bihar. He shall get the entire exercise re-worked out, on the basis of final result of the written examination, under his direct supervision, by a team of competent officers of his office. He shall get the specific points of mistakes committed by the Board identified, with its extent and nature. He shall consider specific steps which may be required to be taken to rectify specific mistakes. He shall get the candidates identified who may have suffered due to these mistakes by the Board, in spite of being higher in the result sheet of written examination. He shall also get the home guard candidates identified who may have been left out of consideration, in spite of directions of the Department contained in the said letter no. 699 dated 4.8.2010. He shall direct the Board to hold a process of physical evaluation test for such left out candidates, for HG candidates first and then for N-HG candidates, and recommend their names to the Department for their appointment on available vacancies or next available vacancy, as the case may be. He shall see that transparency is maintained in the matter, inasmuch as, any party seeking any information is supplied with full information on payment of requisite cost/fee, as may be necessary. He shall see to it that the entire exercise, as directed, is complete in all respects, within four months from the date of receipt/ production of a copy of this order. It is made clear, that in case this exercise is not complete within the time, as fixed, any aggrieved party shall be at liberty to move again for scraping of the entire process of selection and for any consequential relief.

60. It is again made clear that this Court does not claim the figures in the various tables herein and in the order, and calculations made on that basis as absolutely correct. Hence the entire exercise shall be done independently and without reference to any calculation and figures in this order and shall be done only in accordance with law. Besides, the Director General of Police shall be at liberty to move this Court for any clarification/ modification in the order, if he considers the same to be absolutely essential for compliance of the order or for completing the exercise. It is again made clear that the exercise, in terms of this order, should not be affected or guided by figures and calculation made in this order.”

It is also not in dispute that the aforesaid directions within the time limit of four months could not be complied on account of an interim order passed in L.P.A.No.16/2015. The Division Bench, however, by its order dated 1.7.2015 in L.P.A.No.16/2015 has not interfered with the directions issued by the learned Single Judge in the aforesaid judgment but at the same time it has clarified certain issue raised by the appellant namely the Chairman, Central Selection Board which would become more clear from the relevant concluding portion of the aforesaid order dated 1.7.2015 which reads as follows:

“The learned Single Judge pointed out certain errors said to have been committed by the Board in the selection process. That may not be treated as insinuation on the Board. However, if one takes into account the claims that have been put forward by various candidates, that too on the basis of the guidelines issued by the Court in the earlier round of litigation, what is left to be done is not in the realm of selection, stricto sensu, but only application of those guidelines. We would have certainly entertained the appeals, had the State, which is the ultimate appointing authority, felt aggrieved by the judgment. The only appellant before us is the Board. Its principal function can be said to have been discharged with the conducting of the examination and preparation of the select list. What appears to have weighed with the learned Single Judge is that a perfect process of verification of the candidates is required and for that purpose, the Department of Police is better suited. We do not find any serious defect in such a direction.”

We therefore dismiss these appeals by making it clear that none of the observations in the judgment shall be treated as any negative reflection as to the functioning of the Board."

Mr. Sanjay Pandey, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Board, has however submitted that there are many categories of petitioners in these cases and some of them may not be strictly covered by the aforesaid judgment given by the learned Single Judge as affirmed by the Division Bench. He points out that there are in the category of the petitioners in these cases as also other similar pending cases even such candidates who were never shortlisted much less selected earlier. He is thus of the view that whatever directions have been given in the judgment, therefore, can not be made blindly applicable for the petitioners of these cases and other similar pending cases.

This Court has no quarrel as with regard to applicability of the judgment of the learned Single Judge as affirmed by the Division Bench. The exercise, however, as directed by the learned Single Judge in his judgment dated 12.8.2014 has to be completed as it has now become final after the judgment of the Division Bench.

As has been noted above, the Director General of Police in the direction issued by learned single Judge was given the time frame of four months from the date of receipt/ production of a copy of the order. That, however, got extended on account of earlier stay granted till disposal of L.P.A.No. 16/2015 which now only on 1st July, 2015 has been dismissed. This Court, therefore, would now call upon the Director General of Police to complete the direction given by this Court in the earlier judgment as referred above and while doing so the cases of the petitioners shall also be considered in the same manner in which direction was given by the learned Single Judge.

Before parting with, this much however is made clear that this Court has not gone into the merits of individual cases of any of the petitioners and thus the final has to be taken strictly them as was directed by the learned Single Judge in his judgment dated 12.8.2014 in the case of Kamlesh Dikshit Raj (supra).

With the aforementioned observations and directions, all these writ applications are disposed of.
