CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 28-09-2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Supplementary counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondents no. 2 and 4 in which the stand is that all admitted dues of the petitioner have been paid except for the claim of merger of 50% dearness relief with the basic pension which has been denied on the ground that it was available to persons retiring only after 01.01.2005 till December, 2005 and thereafter since the pension itself was revised, there was no question of any merger of the dearness relief with the basic pension.

In view of the aforesaid, this Court finds that all admissible dues of the petitioner have been paid.

Accordingly, the writ application stands disposed off.
