ORAL ORDER

2 27-01-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel representing the complainant.

Petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Complaint Case No. 791 C of 2013 in which cognizance has been taken under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

The complainant was married with the son of the petitioners and thereafter she stayed in the matrimonial house for nine days. After one month she was again brought o matrimonial house where the husband started misbehaving and the petitioners also tortured and abused her and they tried to set her on fire by sprinkling kerosene oil and lastly she was ousted from her matrimonial house.

Submission is of false implication, further that the petitioners are father-in-law and mother-in-law and the husband has already filed a petition under section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act for restitution of conjugal right vide Matrimonial Case No. 276 of 2013 but the complainant filed this case only with a view to harass the petitioners. The petitioners have no concern with the affairs of the complainant and her husband to which the learned counsel for the complainant opposes.

Considering the fact that the petitioners are father-in-law and mother-in-law and they are claiming that they are living separately having no concern with the complainant and her husband, the petitioners above named, in case of their surrender or arrest within two months from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order, shall be released on bail on execution of bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned S.D.J.M.. Munger in connection with Complaint Case No. 791 (C) of 2013, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Cr.P.C.
