CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AJAY KUMAR TRIPATHI
ORAL ORDER

2 23-02-2015 The petitioner wants a direction upon the respondent-authorities to insert a clause in the advertisement issued by B.P.S.C. to fill up the post of Assistant Professor by making the Bihar eligibility test passed candidates equivalent to S.L.E.T and

It is a speculative kind of writ application, specially when petitioner's application has been filed, but nothing tangible by way of exercise has been done because of series of litigation of one kind or the other. Nothing is required to be expressed by this Court at this stage. When the authorities start scrutinizing the applications in terms of the eligibility, may be there could be a case to consider. Nothing is required to be said on the basis of presumption or anticipation of the petitioner.

The writ application is dismissed.
