CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE BIRENDRA PRASAD VERMA
ORAL ORDER

3 04-02-2015 Despite repeated calls, none appears on behalf of the petitioners in support of the present writ petition. Yesterday also i.e. 03.02.2015 when the matter was called out none had appeared on behalf of the petitioners to press the present writ petition. However, by an oral order the matter was passed over for the day.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents jointly submit that, in fact, the present writ petition has become infructuous. According to them, all the admitted dues have been paid to the petitioners. In support of their above submissions, they have placed reliance on the averments made in the counter affidavits filed on behalf of the District Magistrates of Sheohar, Bhojpur, Buxar and Saharsa.

On examination of the records, this Court finds that the copies of the aforesaid counter affidavits were served upon the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners way back in the year 2010 or 2011, but till date the petitioners have not controverted the averments made in the aforesaid counter affidavits by filing any rejoinder affidavit and, therefore, it appears that they are satisfied with the payment of admissible dues.

In the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the present writ petition is dismissed as it has become infructuous.
