Learned counsel for the Patna Municipal Corporation is present.

Having regard to the fact that the petitioner has moved this Court against the order of suspension pending inquiry, this Court having regard to the seriousness of the matter, is not inclined to interfere with the order of suspension but at the same time it would direct the inquiry to be concluded against the petitioner, if not already initiated and concluded by now within a period of six months.

With the aforementioned observation and direction, this application is disposed of.
