ORAL ORDER

learned AC to AAG-2 for the State.

The present writ application has been filed seeking a direction to the respondents to further investigate the case and arrest the respondents no. 8 to 12, who are named in the F.I.R. of Purnahia P.S. Case No. 91 of 2013 instituted on 29.11.2013 for offences punishable under Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that her son was killed for which F.I.R. was lodged and five persons were made named accused. However, the police in collusion had not sent them up for trial and has rather shown two other persons to be the culprit and one has also been arrested.

Learned counsel for the State submits that now the chargesheet has been submitted and the matter is before the Court and thus the petitioner has her remedy to file an appropriate application before the Court concerned if she is aggrieved by the action of the police.

In view of the aforesaid, the application stands disposed off with liberty to the petitioner to move before the Court below in accordance with law.
