CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date: 05-10-2015

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

From the counter affidavit filed on behalf of respondents no. 2 and 3 in December, 2014, copy of which has been served on learned counsel for the petitioner in January, 2015, all dues to the petitioner are stated to have been paid except remaining amount of provident fund amounting to Rs. 16,385/- for which it has been stated that cheque dated 05.04.2014 is lying with the respondents and because the petitioner had died, the same could not be paid and it will be paid to her successor.

In view of there being neither any rejoinder to the counter affidavit nor any substitution petition filed, despite granting time on 21.01.2015 and 04.09.2015, this Court does not deem it necessary to keep the matter pending. Accordingly, the writ petition stands disposed off.

However, with regard to the admitted amount lying with the respondent Corporation, the heirs of the late petitioner may approach before the respondent no. 2 along with a copy of this order who shall ensure that such payment is made after due verification in accordance with law within four weeks thereafter.
