ORAL ORDER

2 06-01-2015

Heard both sides.

The petitioner Prem Shankar Mandal @ Guddu Mandal apprehends his arrest in Complaint Case No. 563 of 2014, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498(A) and 494 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

The complainant-wife has made allegation that she was subjected to physical and mental torture and she was driven out from her house on account of non-fulfillment of demand of dowry. The complainant-wife also made allegation that her husband has solemnized second marriage.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is ready to keep his wife and the allegations are false and concocted.

Learned APP did not dispute the facts.

It appears that effort was made for reconciliation between the husband and wife but the wife narrated her woes before the court below and there appears that the husband solemnized second marriage.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner above named on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the same is rejected.

However, the petitioner, if so advised, may surrender before the court below within four weeks and the court below shall consider the prayer for bail of the petitioner without being prejudiced by this order.
