CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA MOHAN SHARMA
ORAL ORDER

2 07-05-2015 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned counsel for the State.

In this application for anticipatory bail the petitioner apprehends his arrest for the offences punishable under section 498 A of the I.P.C and section 3 of Dowry Prohibition Act.

The informant was married with the petitioner seven years ago and was blessed with a son and a daughter and when again she was pregnant the petitioner started torturing her and demanded Rs. 1,00,000/- and due to non fulfillment tried to kill her but due to alarm being raised and due to intervention of local people she was saved. Again she was brutally assaulted and was ousted from the in-laws house after keeping her children and belongings.

Submission is of false implication and that as a matter of fact the informant does not want to live with the petitioner. The entire prosecution story is far away from the truth. There was some misunderstanding and the informant has lodged this case.

The learned A.P.P. opposes prayer of pre-arrest bail of the petitioner.

Considering the allegation attributed against the petitioner and further considering the position that he is the husband, this Court is not inclined to grant privilege of pre-arrest bail to the petitioner and accordingly his such prayer stands rejected in connection with Muffasil P.S. Case No. 400 of 2013 pending in the court of C.J.M. Begusarai.
