CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PRABHAT KUMAR JHA
ORAL ORDER

3 15-10-2015

Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case under Section 302 and other sections of the Indian Penal Code.

The mother of the deceased made allegation that Remi Devi was brutally assaulted by her husband, mother-in-law and brother-in-law (the petitioner) and she was dropped at the house of Kundan Yadav. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the informant is not an eye-witness of the occurrence.
The petitioner is the brother-in-law of the deceased and he has got no manner of concern with the family affairs of the deceased and her husband Bhawesh Yadav.

On perusal of the record, it appears that the deceased was dropped at the house of Kundan Yadav. Pinki Devi, the sister of Kundan Yadav, disclosed that the petitioner along with his mother and brother (husband of the deceased) brought Remi Devi (the deceased) on an auto-rickshaw and dropped her at her house and after some time, she died.

Considering the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail in Sarsi P.S. Case No. 15/2015. Accordingly, the same is rejected.

The petitioner, if so advised, may surrender in the court below and make prayer for regular bail. The court below shall consider the prayer for regular bail of the petitioner without being prejudiced from this order.
