CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

6. 27-04-2015 Heard learned counsel for petitioners and learned A.C.
to Standing Counsel – 22.

Learned counsel for petitioners submits that in the present matter, petitioners have filed a suit, bearing Title Suit No.
154 of 2004, in which, private respondents of the present writ petition have already been impleaded as defendants.

Learned counsel for petitioners accepts that he has lost mutation case before all the three courts, however; keeping in view the fact that the matter is pending before the court of competent jurisdiction, it would not be advisable for this Court to interfere with the matter.

The writ petition stands disposed of.

It goes without saying that judgment and decree in the civil court will have binding effect on all the parties.
