CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH

and

HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJENDRA KUMAR MISHRA

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE NAVANITI PRASAD SINGH)

Date: 02-07-2015

Notices were issued to the respondents, who are the only contesting respondents. Notices having been validly served, they chose not to appear.

Learned counsel for the Postal Department, petitioners, submits that they have no cause to appear any more because pursuant to the order of the Tribunal, which is under challenge, they were allowed to appear in the Departmental examination for promotion though the stand of the Department was that they were not entitled to appear in the examination. Having appeared in the examination, all three of them have failed to make the mark. Thus, the order of the Tribunal serves no purpose. It has out lift its utility.

In that view fair stand taken by the learned counsel, we do not pass any final orders because in our view the writ petition has virtually become infructuous. It is disposed of as such.
