CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AMARESH KUMAR LAL
ORAL ORDER

4 20-03-2015 Both these applications arise out of Daraunda (MH Nagar) P. S. Case No. 145 of 2013 for the offence punishable under Section 302/34 IPC, as such, they have been heard together and are being disposed of by this common order.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and the State.

Allegation against the petitioners is to have cut the throat of Brahma Chaudhary, father of the informant which caused his death.

It appears that earlier the prayer for bail of the petitioners was rejected vide Annexure-1. The report of the trial Court has been received which shows that all the material witnesses have been examined and the case is fixed for examination of the Investigating Officer and it has been expected that trial would be concluded within three months.

Considering the facts and circumstances, in my opinion, the petitioners do not deserve bail at this stage. Their prayer for bail is rejected.

Let the trial be expedited and concluded as per the estimated time of the trial Court.

However, if the trial is not concluded within the estimated time of the trial Court, the petitioners will be at liberty to move the trial Court for grant of bail.

(Amaresh Kumar Lal, J)
